In poetry, metre (Commonwealth English) or meter (American English; see spelling differences) is the basic rhythmic structure of a verse or lines in verse. Many traditional verse forms prescribe a specific verse metre, or a certain set of metres alternating in a particular order. The study and the actual use of metres and forms of versification are both known as prosody.

A maypole is a tall wooden pole erected as a part of various European folk festivals, around which a maypole dance often takes place.. The festivals may occur on May Day (May 1st) or Pentecost (), although in some countries it is instead erected at Midsummer. In some cases the maypole is a permanent feature that is only utilised during the festival, although in other cases it is erected ...
